Nestled just outside Grass Valley's city limits, this beautifully remodeled single-story home is a close to downtown. Located across from a trailhead leading into they Empire Mine State Park, the home offers easy access to 14 miles of trails for walking, hiking, or biking. The exterior boasts a new driveway and ample parking for an RV or boat, while the interior features high-end finishes like granite countertops, and real wood floors. The primary bathroom provides a spa-like experience with multiple shower heads, and the large, reinforced back deck is perfect for entertaining. The fenced yard offers a safe space for kids or pets, and with updated plumbing, electrical, and new windows, this home is move-in ready. It's the perfect blend of nature and convenience, ideal for those looking to downsize, simplify, or find a great family home in a prime location.
